WHAT'S NEW?

The answer is more – a whole lot more. The 2022 collection is packed with today's most popular trends to wow your customers. With four new brands and over 150 new styles, we have curated a collection that is sure to put you and your customers on the forefront of fashion.

We are proud to introduce Atlantis Headwear, a brand committed to designing and manufacturing high-end accessories that do right by the planet. To Atlantis, a hat is much more than an accessory; it is a head-on declaration of what we are and what we want to be. We are also adding Kastifel, an industry leader in creating better products through thoughtful decisions every step of the way. This brand designs and creates garments by ensuring the manufacturing process is fairly, ethically, and sustainably handled from start to finish. Paragon, a division of Century Place Apparel and market-leader since 1982, is proudly joining the 2022 collection. They offer performance apparel with cutting-edge technology and design. Expect to see great examples of moisture-wicking, anti-microbial, snag-proof, and wrinkle-resistant products with 4-way stretch and UPF50+ sun protection. Last but certainly not least, SoftShirts is the final brand joining the offering this season. The goal of SoftShirt's is to bring premium shirts to the market. They've scoured the world for the finest, softest, and most resilient cottons to make their fabrics, a search that culminated in an all-natural shirt that both feels and looks good.

We are thrilled to introduce these new brands, but that is definitely not all. Check out the newest styles and colors from your favorite brands, like adidas, Alternative, Burnside, Columbia, DRI DUCK, Independent Trading Co., Richardson, and so many more. Together, we can make 2022 the best one yet.

Workplace dressing has been moving toward casualization for some time – and the pandemic has accelerated that shift. Workleisure begins with the basics of the off-duty wardrobe (T-shirts, pullovers, joggers) translated in the materials and details of the office. It means T-shirts fancied-up with embroidery. It means jackets with the structure taken out, so they are more like shirts, but still jackets, and shirts with a bit of slink.

This winter's key trends are: quilted jackets, puffer coats, oversized silhouettes, and shirt jackets(shackets); but luckily for shoppers that are looking for a long lasting purchase these are unlikely to go out of style fast.

"There's a greater emphasis on sweaters this fashion season because, even though the world is opening up and there's a renewed interest in getting dressed and people are getting out of their athleisure wear, we still, to some extent...live on Zoom calls," personal shopper and image consultant Lucia Gulbransen told Shop TODAY.

With company staff dispersed, a well-chosen gift became a way to keep employees connected and reward them for work performance above and beyond under extremely difficult circumstances. When corporate events went digital, a gift box for valued attendees brought a touch of reality to an otherwise virtual event. Likewise, with client relationships kept at a distance, a well-chosen gift bridged the gap.

2020 resulted in many ski resorts having to close which led to a lot of pent-up demand, and if you are an avid skier or snowboarder, you are probably very eager for some semblance of a return to resort normalcy on the slopes. The 2021-22 ski season is predicted to be back to normal operations at many resorts across the country this winter.
